■ A two-sport athlete who is one of the finest pass rushers in the nation on the football field.

■ His inside play was a key factor in Carolina's run to the 2000 Final Four.

■ Featured in page one photos on the front section of USA Today on two consecutive Mondays after NCAA wins over Stanford and Tulsa.

JULIUS PEPPERS

A tremendous two-sport standout for the Tar Heels • Earned Freshman All-America honors at defensive end in 1999 and provided much-needed depth and frontcourt muscle as Carolina went to the 2000 Final Four • Shocked most all observers, and even the UNC coaches, with the transition from football to basketball • Joined the program on Nov. 29 and was playing significant minutes in key games within a month • Starred in Carolina's win over Tennessee in the NCAA regional semifinals • Dominated inside over the final eight minutes after center Brendan Haywood fouled out.

FRESHMAN SEASON (1999-2000)

Featured in page one photos on the front section of USA Today on two Mondays in a row and featured in Sports Illustrated after NCAA Tournament wins over Stanford and Tulsa • Joined the basketball team on Nov. 29 after the Tar Heels returned from the Maui Invitational.

Had nine points and four rebounds in the NCAA first-round win over Missouri • Recorded six points, three rebounds and three blocked shots in the upset of No. 1 seed Stanford in the second round of the NCAA South Regional • Helped limit Stanford's starting frontcourt to 7-for-29 shooting • Had a huge three-point play with six seconds left before halftime to give UNC a 28-27 lead at the break.

Had six points, six rebounds and two blocks against Tennessee in the Sweet 16 • Played most of the final 8:03 after Brendan Haywood fouled out, despite picking up his own fourth foul with 6:10 to play • Hit two free throws with 26 seconds left to play that gave Carolina a six-point lead • Grabbed five rebounds in the final 6:59 against the Vols.

Had six points, eight rebounds, two assists and two steals in the regional final against Tulsa • Sparked Carolina early with an acrobatic layup.

In his first month as a Tar Heel, he had 8 points, 6 rebounds and 3 blocked shots against Howard, 7 points and 4 rebounds vs. Tennessee Tech, 6 points at Buffalo (including a spectacular dunk that was featured on ESPN) and 5 points at Louisville.

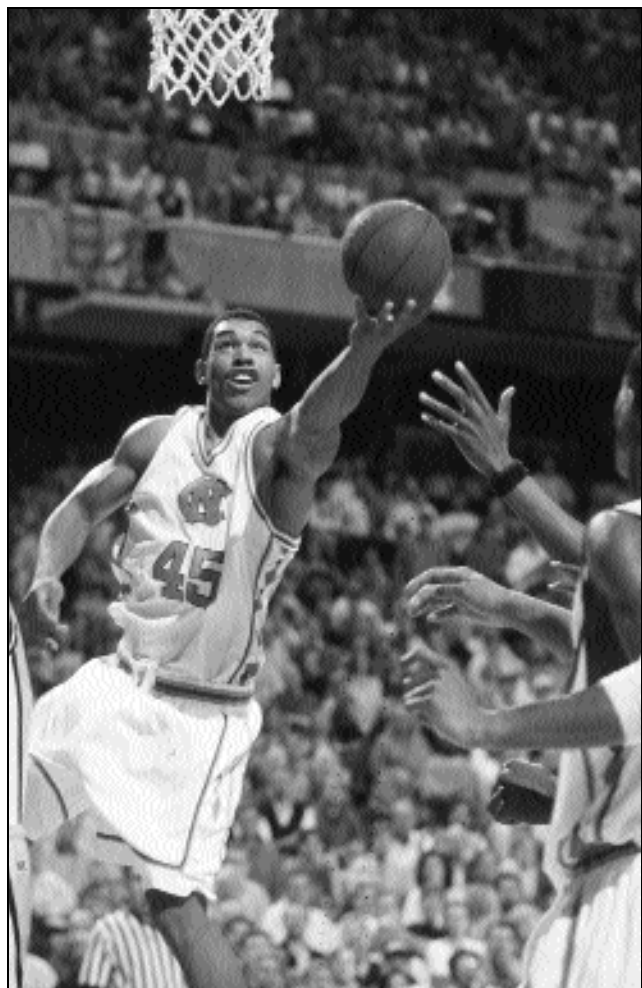

Helped limit Georgia Tech frontcourt stars Alvin Jones and Jason Collier to 7-27 shooting from the floor on Jan. 29 • Had three steals and five boards against Maryland on Jan. 27 • In 18 minutes of action against UCLA, he had five points, six rebounds (three offensive) and two blocked shots • Ripped down 13 rebounds (five offensive) against Clemson on Jan. 6 • Added six points, a blocked shot, an assist and two steals in 24 minutes against the Tigers • Played crucial minutes in the second half and had five points, four rebounds, two blocked shots and three steals against Florida State on Jan. 22 • Scored a career-high 14 points on 6 of 7 shooting vs. Georgia Tech on March 1 • Went 4 for 4 from the floor with eight points on March 4 at Duke.

FOOTBALL AT CAROLINA

Through the first five games of the 2000 season, (as of Oct. 1) he led the Tar Heels with five quarterback sacks • Scored his first collegiate touchdown when he picked up a fumble and returned it 12 yards for a score in the win at Wake Forest • Had two sacks against Florida State.

Started all 11 football games in 1999 at defensive end • He had 50 tackles and led the team in tackles for losses with 10 for 47 yards and in quarterback sacks with six for 36 yards • He also intercepted a pass (at Clemson), caused and recovered one fumble and blocked one kick • He was
